

EQUALITY IN POLITICS

liris Suomela 28.1.2020

93/2000

Finland is definitely not “done” with feminism, let alone equality.

The two main opposition parties have never had female chairpersons.

If we keep on accepting parties that have strong male majorities, then we also need to accept parties where women form the majority.

1903

Local politics and policies at the grassroots make a massive difference.

Representation matters.

THANK YOU!

iiris.suomela@eduskunta.fi